Then Took His Washwoman Out Driving on the Boulevard.

CONEY ISLAND, July 13.-Disposses papers were served on Ernest Pietzsch, eccentric hotel-keeper at West Brighton, this afternoon.

Pletsich has been running the St. Nicholas Hotel and various catch-penny enterprises on Maiden lane and Sea proprietor of the Plaza Hotel at St. Augustine, Fla.

Two weeks ago he created quite a sensation here by visiting the concert halls on the Bowery and throwing more than $5,000 in silver coins at the performers. He was arrested on complaint of his brother, who told Police Sergi Clayton that Ernest was crazy several years ago and he believed he was crazy then.

The following morning, in the Police Court, the hotel keeper said he had a scheme that would net him $100,000 this year, and the silver boquet throwing was the scheme he adopted for advertis-

He has also bought a mammoth automatic organ and two performing bears. While the organ plays "Sweet Marie," Pietsech dances with the bears on the stage in the concert hall. He has no mosey and no credit, and pays for everything as the money comes in over the bar and in the concert hall.

Yesterday he could not pay his gas bill and the Company turned off his gas. The concert hall was lighted by large oil lamps of all shapes and sizes last night.

The concert hall was lighted by large oil lamps of all shapes and sizes last night. A squad of police stood around to see that none of the lamps exploded and set fire to the buildings.

After the concert Pietszch closed all the doors, called his help and performers together, and in a body with him in the lead they marched down to him in the lead they marched and the Baroness Blanc, visited the District-Attorney's office on West the Baroness Blanc, visited the District-Attorney's office was charmingly dressed and was accompanied to shoot the hotel keeper and his noisy mob if they attempted to enter. The police were summoned and dispersed the crowd.

This morning Pietszch sent for the butcher, grocer, baker and other business men on the Island whom he has doing business with and told them he wanted to square up.

He oftered them checks, but all reflect of introduction from Mr. Kern, the District-Attorney of that city. Mr. Davis was seen immediately after they left but would not say what fused, as Fletzsch's paper for the past fused, as Fletz

He offered them checks, but all refused, as Pietszch's paper for the past three weeks has come back from the banks marked "N. G."

Pietssch got very angry at their refusal to accept his checks, and drawing from under the bar several cigar boxes filled with coppers, shouted: "I'll fix your" and then proceeded to pay them off in pennies. The coppers soon disappeared, but two of the creditors had to leave without getting their money. When the performers heard that the hotel-keeper was paying people they, the performers heard that the keeper was paying people they, rushed in for their money. After Pietszch had finished his bustness with the performers he hired an open carriage an took his washer-woman out driving on the Boulevard.

Acting-Capt. Clayton said this afternoon that the Sheriff would in all probability take charge of Pietszch's business to-morrow.

It is a great puzzle here to the business nen to know what has become of the hotel-keeper's money. He was estimated last year to be worth $200.00s.

All believe here that Pietszch is afflicted with paresis.

GUS JIVASHICKA, Butcher, 1202 Pirst avenue.

"You see, Your Honor," explained Mr. Hammerslough, "Im out of town a good leal. I came home at 1 o'clock Saturiay morning. I heard voices in my oom. I entered. A figure disappeared out the window and over the back ence. I lighted the gas and found these." exhibiting the "exhibits."

"Of course, there was a row, but Hatie and I made it up. We decided to go to the country, where butchers do not molest, but Mrs. Saler said we couldn't take our trunks till we gave up Jivashicka's clothes."

Judge McMahon found it hard work to keep down his risbilities, and the clerks and officers fied to the cloakrooms to laugh, but the Court sternly commanded Mrs. Saler sternly commanded Mrs. Saler to surrender the trunks. Then he ordered that the goods and chattels of the First avenue butcher be sent to Property Clerk Harriott at Police Headquarters, to be sold next year unless their owner claims them.

The only joy that Mrs. Saler got out of it was expressed in a chuckle as she murmured:

Riker's Island Nuisance. At the meeting of the Board of Esticise moneys for June amounting to the charitable institutions of the city.

found a pair of Reilly's trousers. It is believed that Reilly, being nervous and agritated, walked to the roof in his sleep, dreaming that he was about to go to work painting the house; that he picked up his trousers, and that in his dreamy state he believed he was putting on his overalls when he got to the edge of the roof and fell over.

The children do not remember their father ever having walked in his sleep before.

Col. W. L. Strong, representing St. John's Guild, requested the Board to apport and maintenance of that institutions of the city.

Col. W. L. Strong, representing St. John's Guild, requested the Board to apport and maintenance of that institutions, as authorized by the last Legislature. The Board of Estimate was not consulted about the bill before it was introduced, and now that it is a law the members of the Board are not sourrying around to find the money for the deserving charity. The law does not specify how the money is to be provided, and unless there is a surplus in the Excise fund, which is surplus in the Excise fund, which is allowance. The subject was referred to Compiroller Fitch.

President Wilson, of the Health Board, made a report on the Rilker's Island nuisance. He said that since the electrozone plant had been in use the bad odors had disappeared. He recommended the continued use of the deodorizer. As to the cremation of garbage, Mr. Wilson said he had not studied the subject sufficiently to make a recommendation. The Board then authorized the purchase of an electrozone plant for Riker's isl-

LOOK OUT FOR TAINTED MEAT Health Authorities on the Alert for

Delayed Shipments. The health authorities of this city have received notification that a number of meat passed through Pittsburg yesterday. This morning Inspectors Romaine and Goodheart were detailed to watch for the arrival of the beef, and if they find the meat is unfit for consumption they will consign it to the offal dock.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken for the inspection of beef, both dressed and on the boof, since the beginning of the strike. Thus far, the inspectors assert, not a morsel of dressed or tainted meat has got to the public, although it has been found necessary to confiscate considerable quantities.

In view of the expected arrival of delayed freight, the care of the inspectors will be redoubled during the bext few days and prompt seizures of suspected food supplies will follow.

Julian T. Davies, in behalf of the road, presented large photographs of the road, with and without the third track, in certain places, to show that the structure permitted the light and rain to go through to the street in places. He contended that the court could not enjoin, as the Railroad Commission had given assent to the third track, and their a sent had been approved by Justice Ingraham, of the Supreme Court, Judge Bischoff reserved decision.

"You will not take it as an insult, "You will not take it as an insult, I presume," said the confidential agent of the Consolidated Franchise Grabbers, "If I offer you this?"
"Yes, sir" replied the incorruptible Alderman from the Seventh Ward, a flush of honest indignation rising to his face as he counted it hastily and thrust it into his pocket, "I take it, sir—as an insult! It isn't—hum—quite what I had expected, sir."
